

guy woodward

Guy qualified as a Solicitor and subsequently became a Senior Partner in the Law practice founded by his father, Douglas Mowbray Woodward.

Guy has worked as a criminal solicitor and family solicitor, specialising in care cases and becoming one of the first solicitors to become a member of the Law Society's specialist children's panel. In this role, Guy represented children in care proceedings over many years involving hundreds of cases undertaking his own advocacy in Family Proceedings Court (Magistrates), Care Centres (County Courts) and High Courts.

Guy has represented children, children's guardians, parents and grandparents in care cases, as well as Local Authorities in complex care proceedings.

Guy has also served as President of Bath Law Society, a Chair of Bath and District branch of NSPCC, and a member of The Bishop of Bath and Wells Child Protection Committee. He is a member of Lawyers for Children Organisation and a committee member of the Forever Friends Committee of the Royal United Hospital, Bath.
