

Tony Griffin

Tony Griffin is currently employed as a staff development officer by a local authority. He has the lead responsibility for the development and implementation of the multi-agency safeguarding children training. He is a member of the Local Safeguarding Children Board Training Sub Group.

Tony is a retired Police Officer and has been involved in child protection since the early 1990's. As a Detective Sergeant he managed a Child Abuse Investigation Team for 5 ½ years before retiring in 2007.