

Caring for sexually abused children

Course Aims

To provide a basic introduction to the impact of sexual abuse and trauma on children, young people, families and professionals.

Course Objectives

- To enable participants to recognise signs and symptoms of sexual abuse.
- To identify when specialist advice and intervention is needed and how to access it.
- To provide participants with the opportunity to explore case studies and therapeutic care strategies.