

Facilitation of groups

Course Aim

The aim of this course is to develop the knowledge and skills necessary for confident and effective group facilitation.

Course Objectives

- Gaining knowledge of group theories and processes and their application to practice.
- Being clear of the role and task of the facilitator.
- Practicing facilitation skills.
- Developing practical ways of overcoming problems in groups.