

Working with resistant parents

Course Aims

To develop their understanding of the key issues in recognizing and dealing effectively with resistant, avoidant and aggressive parents in children's safeguarding work.

Objectives

- Participants will be more able to build upon their own knowledge of their work area to understand key issues from the literature, policy, regulations and research.
- They will have a greater awareness of barriers to engagement by resistant and violent parents, and be able to identify methods to overcome such parental strategies.